

County Profile:
Meigs, Tennessee

Includes incorporated communities of: Dayton, Spring City, Graysville

Available Labor Force (2015)

Labor Force 4,860
Unemployment 380
Unemployment Rate 7.8%

Education

One high school (Meigs County)

Colleges serving Meigs County
Bryan College, Cleveland State Community College, Lee University, Roane State Community College, Chattanooga State Technical College, TN College of Applied Technology—Athens, Hiwassee College

Top Employers

Meigs County Board of Education
Meigs County Schools
Volunteer Energy Cooperative
Storm Manufacturing Corp.
County of Meigs

Utility Infrastructure

Local power provider: Volunteer Energy Co-Op, Peco Electric Co LLC, Dayton City Utility Building, Solomon Corporation, Athens Utility Board
Natural Gas provided by: Middle TN Natural Gas, Dunlap Natural Gas, Thompson Gas, Upper Cumberland Gas Utility District
Telecommunications provided by: American Tower Corp, Charter Communications
Water providers: Town of Decatur Utilities

QUICK FACTS

County Seat: Dayton

Nearest MSA: Chattanooga, 53 miles

Population: 2015 Est. - 11,830

Access to major highways:
I-75, US-30, US-58, US-60, US-68

Airport Access:

Commercial - Chattanooga Metropolitan, 43 miles
International - Nashville International, 154 miles

Other Information:

Meigs County is “The Shoreline Community” fully equipped with glasslike water and plenty of places to go for water sports.

